

Name: _____

Chapter 1	Lesson 2	California's Regions
-----------	----------	----------------------

Vocabulary

Using the text, not the glossary or a dictionary, write down the meaning of the word.

19	natural
	region
20	coastal plain
20	harbor
22	tributary
22	delta
22	fertile
23	irrigation
24	sea level

Reading Comprehension

California is the _____ largest state? (first, fifth, twentieth?)

What two states are bigger?

What is the highest point in the 48 connected states?

What is the lowest point in the whole Western Hemisphere?

About how far apart are those two points?

What are California's four natural regions?

What is the state flower of California?

How long is California's coast?

What are the mountains on the coast called?

What are two of California's natural harbors?

What are four of the valleys in California's Coast Region?

What are the islands near San Francisco called?

What are the islands in southern California called?

What is the biggest island?

What is the biggest mountain range in California called?

How tall is Mt Whitney?

How many mountains in California are over 13,000 feet tall?

What is the name of a famous valley in the mountains?

What is California's deepest lake?

What are two of California's volcanoes called?

What mountains are they in?

How many mountains in California are taller than 14,000 feet?

What river is in the southern Central Valley?

What is the northern Central Valley called?

What is the Central Valley known for?

What is California's state capital?

What two freeways go through it?

What two rivers meet there?

What mountains are on the east side of the Central Valley?

What mountains are on the west side of the Central Valley?

What two deserts are in the Desert Region?

What two valleys are in the Desert Region?

What big lake is in the Desert Region?

What river formed it?

When did this happen?

What is one of the driest and hottest places?

How low is the lowest point?

How hot was it July 10th, 1913 in Death Valley?

At the end of the lesson, there is a lesson summary. Please write the summary below in your best cursive writing.

